

Reis D., Grade 5 ~ Boys & Girls Club of Corvallis, Corvallis ~ Teacher: Nelia Mendonca

February 2010

This calendar was printed with support from the Oregon Seed Council and the Oregon Blueberry Commission.

Sunday

Monday

Tuesday

Wednesday

Thursday

Friday

Saturday

1

Hot Breakfast Month

2

Groundhog Day

3

Nat'l Cherry Month

4

Oregon has 21 active volcanos.

5

Oregon's state flag is the only one to have a front and back design.

6

The February flower of the month is the violet.

7

Crater Lake is the deepest lake in the U.S. at 1,943 feet.

8

Silver Falls State Park has the highest concentration of waterfalls in the U.S.

9

Fur traders came to the Oregon Territory in the 1800s for beaver skins.

10

Beaver skins were so valuable, fur traders called them brown gold.

11

Mt. Hood was named after British admiral Samuel Hood in 1792.

12

The Multnomah tribe's name for Mount Hood is Wy'east.

13

Portland's Rose Garden is the oldest, public rose test garden in the U.S.

14

Oregon's 151st Birthday!

Valentine's Day

15

President's Day

16

Mount Hood is 11,249 feet high and home to twelve glaciers.

17

Random Acts of Kindness Day

18

Multnomah Falls is the tallest waterfall in the Northwest.

19

The state of Oregon has 62 million acres of land.

20

57% of Oregon's forest lands are owned by the federal government.

21

Nat'l FFA Week

22

The Willamette River was discovered in 1792.

23

In the 1840s most pioneers settled in the Willamette Valley.

24

Oregon has more ghost towns than any other U.S. state.

25

Hell's Canyon is Oregon's deepest gorge at 7,900 feet.

26

The Willamette River flows south to north which is rare.

27

Darlingtonia Wayside is Oregon's only rare plant sanctuary.

28

A coin toss decided the name of Portland. The losing name was Boston.

✓ Check it out!

Online: View sample chapters and text of Get Oregonized - AITC's Oregon's history and regions book for third and fourth graders. GO covers Oregon's rich history from the early explorer to present day. The book also covers Oregon's six regions geography, geology, climate, economy and agriculture.

